COUNCIL ASKS SPECIAL ELECTION TO APPROVE LIBRARY CONSTRUCTION

The first steps toward securing a library building for Albany were taken by the City Council Monday night when they passed a resolution declaring the need for a public library building in the city. This resolution lays the groundwork for a special election to authorize funds and work on the building.

George Bernard, president of the library board said his group is preparing plans and specifications on the building and will obtain an estimate for the proposed construction.

City Attorney George Glavinovich is instructed to draw up an ordinance banning all diagonal parking on Solano Ave. This action was the result of a study of Solano Ave. traffic conditions completed last week by City Engineer E. A. Tarr and Traffic Officer James McLeod.

The first reading of an ordinance to prohibit self-service gasoline stations in Albany was passed by a unanimous vote of the council. A $500 fine and/or not more than three months in jail may be imposed on violators. At a previous council meeting self-service stations were discussed and it was the opinion of Fire Chief Fred Pimental that they create a fire hazard.

Councilmembers declined to take any stand on a request that they go on record as condemning Mayor Frank Hays' for continuing to work in the strikebound Standard refinery in Richmond.

Among the many speakers granted their hearing during the meeting were members of a newly organized Albany Citizens Committee to Recall Mayor Hays.

Vice-Mayor Bert Hill said the council is in no position to take a stand on the issue. According to the City Charter, Mayor Hays may be absent 60 days in which to be absent from his city duties for any given reason. After the 60-day period a position may be declared vacant by the council. Hays presided as mayor of Albany, the host city, Friday night at the divisional meeting of the League of California Cities held at Golden Gate Fields.

After the council session members of the recall committee, headed by Jewell Dubroff as chairman and Martin Harwayne as secretary, met at a meeting at Mrs. Dubroff's home, 710 Solano Ave.

The party was in honor of Soroptimist Founders' Day. Looking on are Mrs. May Ellis Olson (left) present president, and Grace Higgins, first president of the Albany Soroptimist. Rev. Benefiel spoke on "The New Look."

Albany Soroptimist News By BEA RAYMOND

In honor of the 27th year since the founding of the first Soroptimist Club in Oakland, Mrs. Violet Richardson Ward, the first president, entertained the Albany Soroptimist at a Founder's Day meeting in her Berkeley home on Sept. 13.

The first Soroptimist Club in Alameda County was organized with 81 members. By 1923 it had spread to England and in another year to Paris. Clubs are now organized in Ireland, Scotland, Hawaii and other parts of the world.

Grace Higgins, city treasurer, our charter president, was in charge of the program and was introduced by President May Ellis Olson. Other Past President introduced were Claire McGaw and Bea Williams.

Grace gave us a real treat when she introduced eight members of the original Soroptimist Club of Alameda County. They were Dr. Cassie Moreland, life member; Sara G. Hammond, owner of the Colonial Cafeteria in Oakland; Gladys Liggett Penland, insurance broker; Helena Gamble, American Federation historian; Eloise Cushing, attorney at law; Edna Brown, life member; Emily Watkins, honorary member and Violet Richardson Ward.

It was amazing to see the pep these women have. I was particularly impressed with Sara Hammond. (Continued on page four)

Surprise Stork Shower Climaxes Luncheon

In honor of Mrs. Harold Hardin (former Jutta C. Zahn) daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Victor Zahn, Mrs. Alfred H. Gilson of 909 Santa Fe Ave., entertained last Saturday at a luncheon and surprise stork shower.

The house was beautifully decorated with golden-brown chrysanthemums and the motif for the table setting was carried out with a centerpiece of pink roses with a white tablecloth and napkins showing little lambs and pink and blue clouds as a background.

Those present were Mesdames Ritchie Ward, Thomas Howard, Agnes Dickson, Arthur Erwin, Boyd Harman, N. Reckas, Charles Mauzy, M. Tamele and Victor Zahn.

Mrs. Hardin was the recipient of many beautiful gifts.

Albany was host at a dinner meeting of the Eastbay Division of the League of California Cities held at the clubhouse dining room of Golden Gate Fields. Left to right (standing): Mayor Frank Hays of Albany; Melvin S. Heinkel, El Cerrito councilman and president of the league division; (sitting) Mrs. Heinkel; Richard Graves, executive director of the league, and Mrs. Graves. RED FEATHER CAMPAIGN REACHES 89% OF QUOTA; TO CONTINUE ONE WEEK

With 89% of the $8800 quota reported last Friday, Albany Community Chest workers were hopeful that an additional week of solicitation would carry the Red Feather Drive over the top.

High honors for the Albany Division went to the Western Regional Research Laboratories which brought in 148% of their quota under the chairmanship of "Colonel" William Rabak. A special "Chester" was awarded to the Vegetable Processing Division under Dr. H. S. Olcott for 100% participation of its employees with an average gift of $3.84.

The Albany Schools headed by "Colonel" R. G. Dennis followed a close second with a total contribution of over $1407.33 or $128 per cent of their quota with teachers averaging $7.07 per contribution, while non-certificated employees averaged $3.44. Pupil contributions from Colornices Village School led student contributions with a total of $76.33.

Residential quotas, under "Colonel" Delsa Walton and Louise Weinberg, are nearing their 100 per cent goal. While "Colonel" Harold Denham reported business contribution at 66 per cent of quota, City Employees have raised but $88 or 39 per cent of their quota.

While praising the volunteer workers and the contributors who have made Albany's record to date, General William Woolworth indicated that the 200 Community Chest workers were hopeful that Albany citizens would not fail the Albany Boy and Girl Scouts, the Albany Y.M.C.A., the Children's Hospital, the Salvation Army, the U.S.O., nor any of the 22 agencies that depend upon this drive for their support during the entire 12 months of the year. Failure to reach this goal may mean that these agencies will be forced to make individual appeals at a later date.

Contributors who have not been contacted or who may wish to increase their gifts are asked to send their checks to the Chest office at 2073 Allston Way or phone headquarters, AS. 3-5400, and a volunteer worker will call to obtain a pledge.

To head the program in this area during the fall semester, the following student officers were elected by the Council members: President, Eleanor Bakosh from Albany High School; Vice-President, Ann Keifer of Berkeley High, and a secretary left to be selected by Willard Junior High School.

Highlighting the numerous projects for the coming year, representatives from both Elementary and High Schools prepared plans for a 100 per cent enrollment of students in Junior Red Cross during the first week in November. Coinciding with the pledge drive will be an appeal for gift boxes with the J.R.C.'s goal set at 1000. It is planned to have schools start filling these gift boxes with health and educational articles during enrollment week, in order to have them ready for Christmas shipping to children in foreign countries.

Beatrice Raymond Supports Prop. 3 On Nov. Ballot

Mrs. Beatrice Raymond, prominent Albany civic leader and active in women's club circles, today announced her support of Proposition 3 as a blow to the high cost of living.

"Because of the vicious practice of featherbedding, our living costs are up at least 20 per cent," said Mrs. Raymond. "It is high time fake-work and make-work jobs are eliminated, and Proposition 3 will pave the way."

"We need full production now more than ever before and featherbedding strikes at the very roots of what made this country great. I am asking all my friends to vote 'YES' on Proposition 3 on the November ballot," added Mrs. Raymond.

Mrs. Raymond also pointed out that Proposition 3 assures safe operation of railroad freight trains by placing full control in the hands of the California Public Utilities Commission as was done during the war.

Owners Asked to Claim Dogs at Pound

Humane Officer Melvin Meyers has "about fifteen" homeless dogs now at the city pound, foot of Buchanan St. near the Eastshore Overpass. He asks residents who have lost their dogs or who want a pet to call at the pound. Any dog unclaimed within two weeks will be destroyed.

Among the dogs impounded is a black and white cocker spaniel, three or four months old; two shepherds, one to one and a half years; a part-German police and a toy fox terrier, black and white. All are females. There will be a litter of pups by a pointer for sale within four weeks.

MAYOR FRANK HAYS
Member of the Albany City Council

Notice is hereby given that the Albany Recall Committee intends to submit for signature of voters a petition for the recall of Mayor Frank Hays, a member of the Albany City Council. This notice is given in conformity with the provisions of Sec. 11104 of the Election Code of the State of California. This action is hereby being taken because:

Mayor Hays has failed in his duties as a member of the Albany City Council and has forfeited his right to represent the citizens of Albany by failing to respect the lawfully established picket lines of his fellow workers at the Standard Oil Refinery at Richmond.

If it is true, as reported by the newspapers, he is a foreman at Standard Oil, he has climbed to that position on the backs of his fellow workers when they were out on strike for a decent living wage. In short, Mayor Hays is a strikebreaker, who puts the interests of Standard Oil Company before the interests of his community. This was made very clear when he failed to appear at seven City Council meetings in a row although he had managed to appear at a banquet held at the Golden Gate Fields Clubhouse.

He has followed a "do nothing" policy in regard to vital needs of Albany, such as improved schools, recreational facilities, public transportation and the paving of streets.

He has failed to protect the citizens of Albany from the activities of gambling interests, as was witnessed at our recent fiesta.

Because we have received so many messages of consolation and sympathy, so many tributes and gifts in memory of Oliver, we have missed expressing our appreciation to some. If that has happened, we sincerely regret it and take this means to thank you.

ALBANY SOROPTIMIST NEWS

She is still active at the Colonial Cafeteria although 90 years old. Then there is Helena Gamble, who swears she is 86, looks not a day over 50, no bigger than a minute and cute as a bug's ear. All of the girls are charming. With such charter members of the original Soroptimist, it is small wonder the club has had such a marvelous growth.

On Wednesday of this week, President May opened the meeting and announced we would have a timekeeper whose duty it would be to see that meetings would be adjourned promptly at 1:30. She introduced a very popular guest, Enid Childs, Berkeley Soroptimist, attorney at law.

Program Chairman Miriam Gilson, dean of girls at Albany High, gave us a very appropriate program since this is Girl's Week. Speakers were Phyllis Foley and Mildred Zinn who spoke on "Girl's Activities" and "Girl's State."

The third speaker, Miss Marguerite L. MacLean, director of the School of Nursing, spoke on the need for nurses. The Albany Soroptimist are contemplating awarding a scholarship in nursing.
